

AUDITIONS FOR “YANKEE TAVERN” BY STEVEN DIETZ

The Costa Mesa Playhouse is holding auditions September 9 & 10 for Steven Dietz's play about 9/11 conspiracy theories, “Yankee Tavern.” Kathy Paladino, director. Rehearsals start Sept. 25 (after a first read-through Sept. 12 or 14) and are generally Monday-Thursday, 7:00pm-10:00pm with some possible weekend days. Performances are Oct. 27 through Nov. 19, 2017, Friday & Saturday evenings and Sunday matinees.

Set a few years after the events of September 11, 2001, inside a crumbling New York tavern, a young couple finds themselves caught up in the biggest 9/11 conspiracy theory of all. Steven Dietz's acclaimed thriller is a fierce, funny and ultimately mind-bending work of theatrical power that grips you until the final word.

Roles: ADAM – MALE (late 20's-30's) - a graduate student who inherited the tavern from his late father.

JANET - FEMALE (late 20's) - Adam's attractive fiancée.

RAY - MALE - (50's-60's) - a fast-talking conspiracy theory fanatic.

PALMER - MALE (40's-50'S) - a mysterious bar patron who seems to know a lot of things he shouldn't.

Open auditions will be held Saturday, Sept. 9, 9am - 1pm, and Sunday, Sept. 10, 6pm - 9pm, at the Costa Mesa Playhouse, 661 Hamilton St., Costa Mesa 92627. No appointment necessary.
