

Casting for A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE

Costa Mesa Playhouse is holding auditions for
A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams

Directed by Michael Serna

Video Submissions:

Please submit by February 4, 2022

Invited callbacks will be notified and conducted in person and/or via Zoom.

Performances run March 18 – April 10 (Fridays/Saturdays at 8pm, Sundays at 2pm, one 8pm Thursday performance on March 31st).

Rehearsals begin mid-February: mostly weekday evenings with some possible weekends.

Widely considered his greatest work, Tennessee Williams' A Streetcar Named Desire is set in a sweltering New Orleans, where a fragile Blanche collides with the dysfunctional marriage of her sister Stella and her brutish husband Stanley.

VIDEO SUBMISSION PROCESS:

Actors should introduce themselves and show their personalities. They can perform any piece they'd like but please keep it around 1 ½ minutes.

Actors should ignore preconceived notions of this play.

Color conscience casting will be considered for this production; all ethnicities are strongly encouraged to audition.

Send headshot and video link submissions to: auditions@costamesaplayhouse.com

CHARACTER BREAKDOWN

STEVE HUBBELL – (Male 20's-30's) A hot-headed brute

EUNICE HUBBELL – (Female 20's – 30's) A feisty opinionated woman

PABLO GONZALES – (Male 20's – 30's) A smooth player

YOUNG COLLECTOR – (Male Late teens - 20's) A delicate young man

NURSE – (Female 20's – 30's) A strong stoic woman

THE ROLES OF STANLEY, BLANCHE, STELLA & MITCH HAVE BEEN CAST.